Article (18)

Without prejudice to applicable legislation in the UAE, DMCC Establishments and their employees will be exempt from all taxes, including income tax, in respect of their operations in the DMCC; and will be exempt from any restrictions on the transfer of share capital, profits, or wages in any currency to any destination outside the DMCC. Exemption will apply for a period of fifty (50) years, renewable for the same period pursuant to a resolution of the Ruler. This period will commence on the day on which these establishments or their employees commence work.

Immunity from Limitation of Ownership Measures

Article (19)

Neither DMCC Establishments, nor their property, nor the property of their employees may be subject to any nationalisation or limitation of private ownership measures throughout the period of their work within the DMCC.

Employees of DMCC Establishments

Article (20)

DMCC Establishments may, at their own discretion, employ or hire any person to perform their work, provided that this person is not a subject of any country which is politically or economically boycotted by the UAE.

Exemption from Compliance with Certain Legislation

Article (21)

- a. Neither the DMCC nor DMCC Establishments will, in relation to their operations in the DMCC, be governed by the legislation, authority, or powers of the Dubai Municipality or the Department of Economic Development. This will not apply to the legislation related to public health and safety, the environment, and food control; or to the legislation that expressly stipulates that it is applicable to free zones.
- b. The DMCCA may, as it deems appropriate, seek assistance from Government Entities in the Emirate and other free zones, and benefit from their programmes and systems in licensing DMCC Establishments. These programmes and systems will be implemented in accordance with the bylaws applicable within the DMCC. Licences issued to DMCC Establishments in cooperation with the concerned Government Entities will be deemed as if issued by the DMCCA.

Establishing DMCC Establishments

Article (22)

Sole proprietorships and commercial companies will be established within the DMCC pursuant to the regulations and resolutions that are applicable in the DMCC. DMCC Establishments may be owned by one or more natural or legal persons, regardless of whether these persons are UAE or non-UAE nationals.

Licensing DMCC Establishments

Article (23)

- a. No person or entity may conduct any Activity within the DMCC unless it is licensed by the DMCCA to conduct that Activity.
- b. DMCC Establishments will be licensed in accordance with a regulation approved by the Board of Directors in this regard. This regulation will prescribe all rules governing the business of DMCC Establishments, including their incorporation and registration; and will stipulate all requirements and rules applicable to them. It will also regulate the liquidation of DMCC Establishments as well as any other matters related to them.

Obligations of DMCC Establishments

Article (24)

- b. Where the owner of a DMCC Establishment fails to comply with paragraph (a) of this Article, he will be personally liable to settle the DMCC Establishment's obligations from all his moveable and immovable property.

Liability

Article (25)

- a. Neither the Government nor the ICD will be liable to third parties for any debts or obligations claimed from the DMCCA or its affiliates. The DMCCA will be solely liable for such debts or obligations.
- b. Neither the DMCCA nor its authorised representatives will be liable to third parties for the obligations of DMCC Establishments or of their employees.

Exemption from Liability

Article (26)

Except in cases of fraud and gross fault, neither the Board of Directors, nor the Executive Chairman, nor any of the employees of the DMCCA executive body will be liable to third parties for any act or omission they commit in the course of managing the DMCCA and its operations. The DMCCA will be solely liable to third parties for such an act or omission.

Assignment of Licences

Article (27)

No DMCC Establishment may assign the licence issued to it by the DMCCA to any other party or entity without first obtaining the written approval of the DMCCA.

Administrative Penalties Bylaw

Article (28)

The Board of Directors will issue a bylaw determining the administrative penalties prescribed for violation of any of the provisions of this Law, the resolutions issued in pursuance hereof, or any of the terms of the licences issued by the DMCCA. The bylaw will also specify the entity authorised to impose and enforce such penalties.

Law Enforcement

Article (29)

- a. DMCCA employees and inspectors nominated pursuant to a resolution of the Executive Chairman will have the capacity of Law Enforcement Officers to record the acts committed in breach of the provisions of this Law and the resolutions issued in pursuance hereof. In this capacity, they may monitor and supervise DMCC Establishments and their activities and business; issue the necessary violation reports; and, where necessary, seek the assistance of police personnel.
- b. The law enforcement capacity, referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article, will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the above-mentioned Law No. (8) of 2016 and the resolutions issued in pursuance thereof.

Delegation of Powers

Article (30)

The DMCCA may delegate any of the powers stipulated in this Law to any public or private entity in accordance with an agreement to be executed in this regard. This agreement will determine the rights and obligations of the parties thereto.

Confidentiality

Article (31)

Subject to liability, the records and information of DMCC Establishments will be treated as confidential, and may not be divulged or disclosed to third parties unless pursuant to the legislation in force in the UAE and the regulations, bylaws, and resolutions adopted by the DMCCA.

Issuing Implementing Resolutions

Article (32)

The Board of Directors will issue the resolutions required for the implementation of the provisions of this Law.

Repeals

Article (33)

- a. The above-mentioned Resolution issued on 1 May 2002 and Regulation No. (4) of 2002 are hereby repealed. Any provision in any other legislation will also be repealed to the extent that it contradicts the provisions of this Law.
- b. The resolutions, bylaws, and regulations applicable to the DMCC will continue in force, to the extent that they do not contradict this Law, until new superseding resolutions, bylaws, and regulations are issued.

Publication and Commencement

Article (34)

This Law will be published in the Official Gazette and will come into force on the day on which it is published.
